Policies and Procedures

QX Global maintains a robust framework of policies and procedures meticulously designed to prevent and address modern slavery and human trafficking risks. These policies include, but are not limited to:

01

Code of Conduct and Ethics: Our Code of Conduct outlines the fundamental principles and expectations for ethical behavior by all employees and suppliers engaged with QX Global.

02

Supplier Code of Conduct: We have a Supplier Code of Conduct that clearly articulates our expectations for our suppliers regarding quality, service delivery, and data protection.

03

Whistleblower Policy: To provide a safe avenue for reporting concerns, we maintain a Whistleblower Policy that protects individuals who raise legitimate concerns related to modern slavery and other unethical practices.

04

Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy: Our commitment to maintaining a workplace free from harassment and discrimination is further reinforced through specific policies addressing these issues.

Risk Mitigation and Due Diligence

QX Global undertakes a risk-based approach to identify and mitigate modern slavery risks in its supply chain. Our measures include:

Supplier Onboarding: During the supplier onboarding process, we require all suppliers to adhere to our Supplier Code of Conduct, emphasizing our commitment to combating modern slavery.

Supplier Audits: We conduct periodic audits of our suppliers, especially those operating in higher-risk sectors, to ensure compliance with labor laws and ethical standards.

Training and Awareness: We provide training and awareness programs to relevant employees and suppliers to enhance their understanding of modern slavery and human trafficking risks.

Due Diligence: Prior to engaging with new suppliers or partners, we perform due diligence to assess their practices, including their stance on modern slavery.

Key Performance Indicators

QX Global uses the following key performance indicators (KPIs) to assess the effectiveness of our efforts in combatting modern slavery and human trafficking:

Supplier Compliance: Percentage of suppliers who have signed and acknowledged the Supplier Code of Conduct.

Training Completion: Percentage of relevant employees and suppliers who have completed modern slavery awareness training.

Audit Findings: Results of supplier audits, with remedial actions taken to address any identified issues.
